

PROFILE

Daniel Watkins is a 24-year old canoe slalom athlete who will be making his Olympic debut at the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo.

Daniel made his Senior International debut at the 2014 World Cup in Tacen, Slovenia.

One of Daniel's most memorable sporting moments prior to qualifying for the 2020 Olympic Games was making the finals at World Cup 2 in Krakow, Poland in 2018.

Daniel enjoys hobbies such as climbing, mountain biking, creek boating and hiking.

Daniel Watkins

Canoe-Slalom

Nickname:	Dan
Place of birth:	Hobart, Tasmania
Place of residence:	Hobart, Tasmania
Occupation:	Photocopier Technician
Event:	C1
Secondary School:	Guilford Young College
Higher Education:	Currently studying Bachelor of Science
Club:	Derwent Canoe Club

Canoe Slalom career highlights:

2019 ICF Canoe Slalom World Championships, Spain

2018 Canoe Slalom World Championships, Brazil

2018 ICF Junior & U23 Canoe Slalom World Championships, Italy – 6th in the U23 C1

2017 ICF Canoe Slalom World Championships, France

2017 ICF Junior & U23 Canoe Slalom World Championships, Bratislava – 9th in the U23 C1

2016 ICF Junior & U23 Canoe Slalom World Championships, Poland – 5th U23 K1

2015 ICF Canoe Slalom World Championships, Great Britain

2015 ICF Junior & U23 Canoe Slalom World Championships, Brazil

2013 ICF Junior & U23 Canoe Slalom World Championships, Slovakia