Swimming

PROFILE

Ariarne relocated from Tasmania to Queensland in 2015 to further her swimming career.

Ariarne made her international long course debut at the 2017 World Championships where she claimed bronze in the Women's 4x200m Freestyle Relay and placed fourth in the 400m Freestyle.

The following year aged just 18, Ariarne broke the world 400m Freestyle record at the World Short Course Championships. Ariarne set three new Commonwealth Records and a World Record at the 2019 World Championships.
