

Nathaniel Atkinson

Football

PROFILE

Originally from Tasmania, Nathaniel began playing football for Riverside Olympic before joining the National Training Centre (NTC). It was from there that Melbourne City Youth coaches scouted the youngster.

Making his debut in City's Round 10 win over Central Coast at AAMI Park in the 2017/18 Hyundai A-League season, Nathaniel became the first player to graduate from John Fawkner College through the Melbourne City College of Football program to debut at the senior level.

The fast footed 22-year-old has demonstrated his versatility at the senior level, playing several roles from fullback to midfield.
