

Josh Beltz

Hockey

PROFILE

Making his debut for the Kookaburras in 2015, Josh took the field at the Oceania Cup in New Zealand topped off with his first international goal.

At the age of 20, the defender made his step up from the development squad to the Kookaburras' Olympic training squad in the space of 12 months.

Josh has been named as one of two travelling outfield reserve players for the Kookaburras.

Nickname:	Beltzy
Place of birth:	Hobart, Tas
Place of residence:	Perth, WA
Occupation:	Engineering Student
Position:	Defender
Hockey career highlight:

2016 Champions Trophy, GOLD