

Ciona Wilson

Rowing

PROFILE

In 2017 Ciona was selected into the Hancock Prospecting Women's National Training Centre and in 2018 was selected to her first national team.

Ciona was selected into the Women's Eight squad for the World Rowing Cups and World Rowing Championships.

On her debut to the senior team in 2018, Ciona won two bronze medals (at World Rowing Cup 3 and the World Rowing Championships) and won the Remenham Challenge Cup at the 2018 Henley Royal Regatta.

| | |
|----------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Nickname: | Big C, C |
| Place of birth: | Launceston, Tas |
| Place of residence: | Penrith, NSW |
| Occupation: | Nursing Student |
| Position: | Heavyweight Women's Reserve |
| Secondary School: | Launceston Church Grammar School |

Rowing career highlights:

2018 World Rowing Championships, Women's Eight BRONZE

2018 World Rowing Cup 2, Women's Eight BRONZE